Right to rent (tenant applicants in England only)

From 1st February 2016, landlords and letting agents in England are required to check the immigration status of all adult tenants before they agree to enter into a tenancy agreement. This is to establish you have a 'right to rent' legally in the UK. We will contact you to arrange a suitable time and location to perform this check.

A tenancy agreement cannot be granted if all adult occupiers cannot prove they have a right to rent in the UK.

To establish whether you have permanent right to rent we will need you to provide sufficient documents from List A (if you have permanent right to rent), List B (if you have a temporary right to rent in the UK), or a sharecode from <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-rent>.

Please confirm whether you have:

Permanent right to rent in the UK

Temporary right to rent in the UK

Further information on supporting documents and proving your right to rent status is available at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/right-to-rent-document-checks-a-user-guide>.

Next of kin/emergency contact details (tenant applicants only)

Please provide details of your next of kin/emergency contact.
